

Title: Supplementary activity – possible source of income of school eating device

Author: Marta Mandincová

Department: Education Management Center

Supervisor: RNDr. Jana Marková

Abstract

Bachelor dissertation „Supplementary activity – possible source of income of school eating device“ deal with possibilities of expansion of provided services of school eating. Conduct of supplementary activity is going to bring these device uses the capacity, make profit and possibility to offer employment.

Benefit is going to be increase economy of school device and use the production places and equipment, expansion of offer of job and services. In this time of decreasing number of children boarders and it is one of the possibilities, how use the capacity these devices of school eating, which were reconstructed or retrofitted of services and accomplished strict hygienic criterions.

Expectation is, that this dissertation is going to serve as helping material for devices of school eating expanding themselves. Processed subject is going to help mostly to managing of school and school devices and directors of these devices. In view of the fact that in legislation is not possible to obtain methodical neither advisory material. Subject to processing this dissertation was based on fact that there are no tutorials for supplementary activity nowadays.